Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On July 25, 2013, the Executive Compensation Committee of the OfficeMax Incorporated (the “Company”) Board of Directors approved retention bonuses in the following amounts to the named executive officers (each an “Officer”) set forth below:

Matthew Broad	$500,000
John Kenning	$500,000
Michael Lewis	$500,000

The bonuses were granted pursuant to Retention Bonus Agreements dated as of July 25, 2013 (the “Retention Agreements”) and will vest (i) 50% on the earlier of March 31, 2014 or the closing of the Company’s proposed merger with Office Depot, Inc. (the “Closing”), and (ii) 50% on the earlier of June 30, 2014 or the date that is six months after the Closing. One half of the first installment is subject to performance objectives that, depending on the Officer’s performance, may affect the amount of the first installment that vests.

The Retention Agreements provide that the Officer must be employed by the Company in order for the bonus to vest, subject to exceptions in certain circumstances including involuntary termination qualifying the Officer for severance under a Company plan, death or disability. In the event of involuntary termination qualifying the Officer for severance under a Company plan, death or disability, the bonus will vest at that time. Bonus payments are to be made as soon as practical after the vesting dates.

The Retention Agreements include a non-solicitation and non-compete clause that states that, beginning on the date of the Retention Agreements and ending one year after terminating employment with the Company, the Officer will not (i) employ or solicit for employment any person who is, or was within six months prior to the termination date, an employee of the Company or (ii) commence employment or consult (in a substantially similar capacity to any position held with the Company and with responsibility over the same geographic areas over which the Officer had responsibility during such Officer’s last 12 months of employment) with any competitor engaged in the sale or distribution of products, or in the provision of services, in competition with the products sold or distributed or services provided by the Company. The Retention Agreements state that violation of the non-solicitation and non-compete clause will result in forfeiture of the bonus and the Company may recover any bonus amount already paid.

This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Retention Agreements, the form of which was previously filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on July 29, 2013 and incorporated by reference.

OFFICEMAX RECEIVES $72-MILLION DISTRIBUTION FROM BOISE CASCADE HOLDINGS, L.L.C.
 RETAINS OWNERSHIP OF 20% IN VOTING EQUITY SECURITIES

Naperville, Ill. – OfficeMax® Incorporated (NYSE:OMX), a leading provider of office and facility supplies, technology and services, announced that it received an approximately $72-million cash distribution yesterday related to its October 2004 investment in Boise Cascade Holdings, L.L.C. (“BCH”). OfficeMax owns 20% of the voting equity securities (“Common Units”) of BCH, which is accounted for under the cost method as a $92-million investment (asset), as well as a $94-million deferred book gain (liability), on OfficeMax’s March 30, 2013 consolidated balance sheet.

The $72 million received by OfficeMax was part of a $359-million distribution that BCH made to the holders of its Common Units. As a result of the distribution, OfficeMax expects to record a significant gain in the third quarter.

“We’re pleased to have strengthened our balance sheet by further monetizing this non-core Boise asset,” said Ravi Saligram, President and CEO of OfficeMax. “Following the receipt of these proceeds, our BCH investment represents an indirect ownership interest of approximately 3.2 million shares of the common equity of Boise Cascade Company.”

The distribution resulted from BCH’s sale of 13.9 million common shares of Boise Cascade Company (“BCC”) through two separate transactions:

- A secondary public offering of 10.0 million BCC common shares held by BCH; and
- Repurchase by BCC, from BCH, of 3.9 million BCC common shares.

Following these transactions, BCH owns 15.8 million common shares of BCC. BCH’s sale of BCC shares is expected to result in OfficeMax being allocated taxable income as a partner of the BCH entity. This allocation of taxable income, in turn, might result in cash taxes being due for the year when combined with OfficeMax’s other taxable income and credits.

Background

From October 2004 through February 2013, OfficeMax held two classes of securities in BCH, non-voting equity units (“Series A Units”) and voting equity security units (“Series B Units”). On February 12, 2013, BCH redeemed all of the Series A Units held by OfficeMax for $112 million, equal to the original investment amount of $66 million plus $46 million of total accrued dividends. Until this redemption, OfficeMax had been recording dividend income earned on the Series A Units as a reduction of operating, selling and general and administrative expenses in its Corporate & Other segment. Also on February 12, BCH distributed $85 million to the holders of its Series B Units, of which OfficeMax’s 20% share of proceeds was $17 million. This distribution on the Series B Units was recognized as a return of capital by OfficeMax for accounting purposes. On February 26, 2013, BCH completed a recapitalization in which all outstanding Series B Units were converted into Common Units. Following the recapitalization, no other class of equity security of BCH is outstanding.
