OFFICE DEPOT URGES STOCKHOLDERS TO REJECT DISSIDENT BOARD NOMINEES

Says Electing Dissident Directors Could Damage Prospects for Successful Turnaround

Delray Beach, Fla., March 18, 2008 -- Office Depot, Inc. (NYSE: ODP), a leading global provider of office products and services, today advised stockholders to reject the attempt by Levitt Corporation, a Florida-based real estate development company, and Woodbridge Equity Fund LLLP, its wholly owned subsidiary (together the "Woodbridge Group"), to nominate two dissident directors to the Office Depot Board at this year's annual meeting of stockholders, currently scheduled for April 23, 2008.

The Woodbridge Group is attempting, through the nomination of its two dissident directors, to remove from the Office Depot Board the Company's current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Steve Odland, and the Company's former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, David I. Fuente. Office Depot believes that removing two of the most experienced retailing executives from the Office Depot Board would be highly disruptive, and could destabilize the Company and damage prospects for a successful turnaround. The Board has a strong long-range plan that is in the process of being implemented under difficult macroeconomic conditions.

Accordingly, Office Depot urges its stockholders to sign and return only the WHITE Office Depot proxy card solicited by Office Depot's Board of Directors, and disregard any proxy cards they may receive from the Woodbridge Group.

Additional Information

In connection with the solicitation of proxies, Office Depot filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and mailed to stockholders a definitive proxy statement dated March 14, 2008 (the "Proxy Statement"). The Proxy Statement contains important information about Office Depot and the 2008 annual stockholders meeting. Office Depot's stockholders are urged to read the Proxy Statement carefully. Stockholders may obtain additional free copies of the Proxy Statement and other relevant documents filed with the SEC by Office Depot through the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov. The Proxy Statement and other relevant documents may also be obtained free of charge from Office Depot by contacting Investor Relations in writing at Office Depot at 2200 Old Germantown Road, Delray Beach, FL; or by phone at 561-438-3657; or by email at brian.turcotte@officedepot.com. The Proxy Statement is also available on Office Depot's website at www.officedepot.com. The contents of the websites referenced above are not deemed to be incorporated by reference into the Proxy Statement. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS: The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended (the "Act") provides protection from liability in private lawsuits for "forward-looking" statements made by public companies under certain circumstances, provided that the public company discloses with specificity the risk factors that may impact its future results. We want to take advantage of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Act. Certain statements made in this press release are 'forward-looking' statements under the Act. Except for historical financial and business performance information, statements made in this press release should be considered 'forward-looking' as referred to in the Act. Much of the information that looks towards future performance of our company is based on various factors and important assumptions about future events that may or may not actually come true. As a result, our operations and financial results in the future could differ materially and substantially from those we have discussed in the forward-looking statements made in this press release. Certain risks and uncertainties are detailed from time to time in our filings with the SEC. You are strongly urged to review all such filings for a more detailed discussion of such risks and uncertainties.
