The following letter was sent to Office Depot, Inc. stockholders on March 24, 2008:

RE-ELECT YOUR ENTIRE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
VOTE THE ENCLOSED WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

Dear Fellow Stockholder:

As you know, the Office Depot, Inc. ("Office Depot") 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is currently scheduled for April 23, 2008. Recently, the Levitt Corporation, a Florida based real estate development company, and certain of its affiliates ("Levitt Corp"), nominated two dissident director candidates for election to your Board of Directors. Your Board of Directors strongly urges all Office Depot stockholders to reject the dissident nominees and to vote FOR the Company's directors on the enclosed WHITE proxy card today.

OFFICE DEPOT HAS THE RIGHT BOARD IN PLACE; YOUR MANAGEMENT TEAM CONTINUES TO IMPLEMENT A STRONG LONG-RANGE PLAN

Levitt Corp is attempting, through the nomination of its two dissident directors, to remove from the Office Depot Board your current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and your former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. We believe that removing two of the most experienced retailing executives from the Office Depot Board would be highly disruptive and could destabilize the Company and damage prospects for a successful turnaround.

Office Depot is now operating in an exceedingly challenging economic environment: our customers in North America (which represented approximately 73% of our total sales in 2007) are predominantly small and home office businesses that cannot be expected to maintain their spending as U.S. macroeconomic conditions deteriorate. Despite the challenging economic environment facing the Company, total sales increased to $15.5 billion in 2007, up 3% compared to 2006, and sales in the Company's international division increased 15% in U.S. dollars and 6% in local currencies. Your Board is addressing key issues affecting the Company's future growth and taking steps to return the Company to its performance levels in 2006, and the election of the Levitt Corp's slate of directors could interrupt these efforts and jeopardize the Company's prospects for a successful turnaround.

WE ARE TAKING EVERY STEP NECESSARY TO IMPROVE PERFORMANCE AND INCREASE VALUE FOR ALL STOCKHOLDERS

Your Board and management are confident that we are taking every step necessary to improve Office Depot's performance. In our opinion, we have in place a thoughtful, long-range strategic plan designed to increase value for all of Office Depot's stockholders. In recent weeks we have met with a number of stockholders to hear your views and we intend to meet with more stockholders in the coming weeks to discuss our turnaround plan going forward.

Each of our three divisions has detailed action plans in place to improve margins and drive sales and earnings growth. Included among the actions your Company has already taken are:

- A significant reduction in new store openings and the remodeling of existing stores;
- Aggressive measures to cut spending and shore up margins;
- Opening regional offices to support global business expansion, including a global sourcing office in Shenzhen, China;
- Continuing to grow North American Business Solutions, which posted strong double-digit sales growth in the technology product segment and with public sector customers;
- Adding talented leaders to the senior management ranks to drive the Company's performance long-term;
- Increasing private brand penetration and focusing on ways to improve customer satisfaction; and
- Adding customers by improving product value offerings, growing loyalty programs and enhancing service offerings to complement product offerings.

We intend to leave no stone unturned as we move forward and we pledge to you, our stockholders, that this Board and management team is fully committed to taking all steps necessary so that we can again deliver compelling value for stockholders.

LEVITT CORP HAS NOT DISCLOSED A PLAN TO IMPROVE OUR PERFORMANCE

In contrast to Office Depot's detailed turnaround plan that deals head-on with the difficult macroeconomic environment we face today, Alan Levan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Levitt Corporation, was publicly reported to have admitted that the Levitt Corp has no strategic plan for Office Depot:

[I]t's too soon to discuss whether [Levitt Corp] has a strategic plan for turning around the company.
— Alan Levan, CEO of Levitt Corporation South Florida Sun Sentinel, March 18, 2008*

LEVITT CORP'S NOMINATION PROCESS IS DISRUPTIVE

Your Board is comprised of proven business leaders who are committed to doing what is in the best interests of Office Depot and ALL of its stockholders. Each of your directors has extensive knowledge of, and a commitment to, Office Depot and its businesses. After carefully considering the Levitt Corp's nominees, your Board has unanimously determined that they are not the right persons to serve as Office Depot directors.

Levitt Corp acquired all of its shares in Office Depot this month, purchasing the bulk of its shares only the week before launching its proxy contest. In filing its proxy, Levitt Corp disregarded the advance notice provisions in our bylaws applicable to all of our stockholders, and has sued us to have those provisions, which are meant to protect the interests of all of our stockholders, nullified. Your Board has serious concerns regarding the motivations of Levitt Corp in acquiring its shares, and these concerns are exacerbated by the poor recent performance of Levitt Corporation, including the approximate 93% drop in its share price over the past three years, and the recent bankruptcy of its wholly owned subsidiary Levitt and Sons, LLC. We are also concerned about the poor performance of BankAtlantic Bancorp, a corporation for which Alan Levan also serves as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and where one of the dissident nominees is employed, including the approximate 75% drop in its share price over the past three years.

We ask our stockholders to carefully consider what expertise Levitt Corp will provide to your Company, and whether the Levitt Corp nominees will responsibly make decisions in the best interests of all our stockholders, and not just those of Levitt Corp.

WE URGE ALL STOCKHOLDERS TO SUPPORT YOUR BOARD AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT TEAM AND VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

Your Board and management team have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to building value for all Office Depot stockholders and are positioning the Company for sustainable and profitable growth. We strongly urge all Office Depot stockholders to support your Board of Directors and vote FOR the Company's directors on the enclosed WHITE proxy card today.

We thank you for your continued support of Office Depot.

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

Sincerely,

/s/ Steve
