FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

K CAPITAL SENDS LETTER TO OFFICEMAX BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Boston, MA - October 26, 2005 - K Capital Offshore Master Fund (U.S.
Dollar), L.P. and Special K Capital Offshore Master Fund (U.S. Dollar), L.P. (collectively, "K Capital"), who together with their affiliates are the largest shareholder of OfficeMax Incorporated (NYSE: OMX), today sent the following letter to the Board of Directors of OfficeMax. K Capital and its affiliates hold approximately 6,050,000 shares of OfficeMax common stock, or approximately 8.6% of the Company's outstanding shares.

Board of Directors
OfficeMax Incorporated
150 Pierce Road
Itasca, IL 60143

October 26, 2005

To the Members of the Board:

As the largest shareholder of OfficeMax, we are writing to express our disappointment in your decision on Friday, October 21, 2005, to extend Sam Duncan's term as a board member until 2007. Mr. Duncan has never been elected to the board by shareholders and, given his position of Chairman, we believe that shareholders should have the opportunity to vote on his appointment to the board at the earliest possible date.

In our view, Friday's decision is further evidence of the board's continuing disregard for the views of OfficeMax shareholders. As a board, you have inexplicably rejected numerous shareholder mandates over the years, including:

- o Overwhelming shareholder support to declassify the board so that all directors face election each year. Shareholder resolutions on this topic were put forward in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2005. Each passed by a wide margin--in 2002 and 2005 the motions carried 79.4% and 78.5% of votes cast, respectively. Still, you have taken no action to declassify the board.
- o In 2002, a shareholder resolution calling for the company's poison pill to be subject to shareholder approval carried 71.5% of votes cast. Again, the board ignored this shareholder mandate.
- o In the past, shareholders have publicly called for a separation of the roles of CEO and Chairman. Earlier this year we privately raised this issue at a time when such a change would have been quite convenient, but received no response. Once again, you rejected this message from your shareholders.

We recognize that Claire Farley's departure from the board required some adjustment to ensure that each class of directors was similar in size. Even so, there were several more appropriate alternatives that could have been undertaken rather than prolonging the term of a chairman who has never stood for election. Among the options, one of the two elected directors whose terms expire in 2006 could have been extended to 2007.

Given your poor record of responding to shareholder concerns, we were not particularly surprised by your effort to further insulate Mr. Duncan from a near-term shareholder vote. Shareholders deserve an immediate explanation as to how your actions can be construed to serve their interest.
